“I cannot thank you enough. You and the committee at Neighbor to Neighbor have made such an unanticipated difference in her life. Now she can move forward with less worry to concentrate on her education and improving her employment possibilities.” Literacy Volunteers of Ontario/Yates

“Thank you for being so kind to me and my family. You guys sure made things a bit less stressful. We have had such a tough year at home this year. Thanks and Happy Holidays.”

“I want to personally thank you for your generous donation to help with repairs for our client. Your willingness to help vulnerable families weather their home crisis makes all the difference in the world. Your financial support has a significant impact, making it possible for us to continue our mission, ensuring people with the lowest incomes have decent housing in our community.” Sheen Housing
